⊕ OPENING HYMN

Go, Tell It on the Mountain

136

CALL TO PRAYER

In this O God, your love was revealed among us, that you sent your only son into the world, that we might live through him.

UNISON PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Eternal God, before the mountains were brought forth, or Thou had formed the earth, even from everlasting to everlasting, Thou art God. All powerful and unseen the coming of your light into the world has brightened weary hearts with visions of “peace”. Teach us to proclaim the birth of your Son Jesus Christ through our lives. We thy transient children, would set our lives against thine everlastingness, there to learn humility, there to find inner stability and peace. Our lives can feel shallow, grant us depth. Life can be fretful and irritating, grant us serenity. In the shadow of holidays, we ponder the silence of meaning. We come with penitence for the sorry failures that spoil our recollections. We bring before Thee, our care for the New Year and its many interests. Grant us fresh faith and inspiration for the task. Gather us into Thy sustaining power. Children with their eagerness and gaiety; youth with growing strength and worthy interests; the mature, in the fullness of their power may they be dedicated to unselfish desires. Those who draw near the end of journeys, may each approach the gates open to eternal dawn. Make us adequate to our temptations, trials, challenges and dreams. We pray all this in the spirit of Christ Jesus.

(Silent prayer) Amen

POURING OUT THE WATERS / ASSURANCE OF PARDON

God makes all things new, forgiving old wrongs we cannot seem to forget. As old calendars condemn our actions, God brings love through relationships of faith. Brothers and Sisters, believe the good news of the Gospel: In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven!

SCRIPTURE

The Gospel of John 1: 1-18

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was with God in the beginning. Through him all things were made; without him nothing was made that has been made. In him was life, and that life was the light of all mankind. The light shines in the darkness, but the darkness has not understood it.

There was a man who was from God; his name was John. He came as a witness to testify concerning that light, so that through him all might believe. He himself was not the light; he came only as a witness to the light.

The true light that gives light to everyone was coming into the world. He was in the world, and though the world was made through him, the world did not recognize him. He came to that which was his own, but his own did not receive him. Yet to all who did receive him, to those who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God—children born not of natural descent, nor of human decision or a husband's will, but born of God.

The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us. We have seen his glory, the glory of the One and Only, who came from the Father, full of grace and truth.

John testified concerning him. He cried out, saying, “This was he of whom I said, ‘He who comes after me has surpassed me because he was before me.’” From the fullness of his grace we have all received one blessing after another. For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. No one has ever seen God, but the One and Only, who is at the Father’s side, has made him known.

Our Father which art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

⊕ CHARGE AND BENEDICTION

⊕ CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSE Let There Be Peace on Earth

Let there be peace on earth and let it begin with me.

Let there be peace on earth, the peace that was meant to be.

With God as our Creator, children all are we.

Let us walk with each other in perfect harmony.

Let peace begin with me, let this be the moment now.
With ev'ry step I take, let this be my solemn vow;
To take each moment and live each moment in peace eternally.
Let there be peace on earth, and let it begin with me.
